Why has no other instrument been subject to the Tone Test?

There are many devices for the reproduction of sound—more than ninety makes, it is said. Many widely advertised. Why has but one been subjected to the Tone Test? The reason is clear. There is but one which can meet the Tone Test, and that is

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

The Tone Test is the supreme and searching test of an instrument's quality. In a Tone Test, the artist stands beside the instrument and sings in direct comparison with the New Edison's RE-CREATION of his voice. Occasionally the singer ceases while the instrument continues alone. Can you tell when the break occurs? That is the question. Can you distinguish the living voice from the RE-CREATED voice? More than two million people have sought to do so. Not one has succeeded. More than 1500 public Tone Tests have been conducted. Always the New Edison has emerged successfully.

Come into our store and satisfy yourself about the New Edison. We will gladly demonstrate it.

STEEL WORKER GETS AMAZING RELIEF IN SEVERE CASE OF INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM

Advices 20th Century Liniment in All Cases of Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Etc.

Read what he says:
"I am a steel worker employed by the Scranton Bolt and Nut Works. Those who know the occupation of Puddling Iron will fully realize the danger of catching cold. With me a slight cold developed into inflammatory rheumatism and for three months I could not move hand or foot. Doctors could give me no relief and for five days before using 20th Century Liniment I neither ate nor slept. It was only after much persuasion that I allowed a friend of mine to try your liniment. Five minutes after 20th Century Liniment was applied I felt the first relief from pain in three months, and that very night I slept from 10:30 to 6:30 a. m., and awoke without pain."
In one week I was up and around, and the end of the second week was back at work. If anyone feels doubtful as to the merits of 20th Century Liniment and will write me, I will dispel any doubts they may have.—Thos. A. Caveney, 920 Capouse Ave., Scranton, Pa.
20TH CENTURY LINIMENT has brought relief to thousands of sufferers. FOLLOW HOOVER "OVER THERE"

Girls and Boys of Ohio Study Europe's Hunger Map.

WILL ACT AS MESSENGERS

For Uncle Sam, Interpreting Mr. Hoover's Appeal for International Food Sharing—Other Conservation Lessons Are Planned.

Columbus, O.—(Special).—School children of Ohio who have faithfully followed every conservation measure of the Food Administration during war time are now studying the Hunger Map of Europe, where Mr. Hoover has gone to make a survey of conditions preparatory to making a new appeal for Food Conservation for World Relief.

Before Mr. Hoover returns from Europe the school children of Ohio will have familiarized themselves with food conditions abroad and will be prepared to carry home to their parents and interpret the food messages as they come from Mr. Hoover.

The Ohio division of the United States Food Administration has prepared a series of conservation lessons for the schools, one for each week.

The first lesson is to be introduced Friday, Dec. 6, which has been designated as School Conservation Day for World Relief. This lesson is based upon Mr. Hoover's message, prepared just before Mr. Hoover's departure for Europe. Other lessons will deal with conservation of fuel and clothing. The Ohio Fuel Administration is co-operating in the preparation of the lessons.

MR. HOOVER'S MESSAGE TO THE GIRLS AND BOYS OF AMERICA.

"Now that the terrible war is over you must be glad that you helped to win it by saving food for our soldiers and our unhappy friends across the sea. But our work of feeding hungry people is now to be greater than it has ever been. Many millions of people have been made free by our victory, but they are in the greatest danger of death from starvation. They look to America for food until the next harvest.

We must go on saving and sharing with them as faithfully as ever. And, of course, you will want to do your part as you have been doing. We have a greater task than any of us can imagine in saving the world from famine, but we can do it if each of us does all he can. I am counting upon you. Faithfully yours, (Signed) HERBERT HOOVER.

If every sword were immediately turned into a plowshare there is a winter before us when plowshares don't count.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE HANOVER THIS WEEK

S. W. BURLINGAME, Noble County.

S. W. Burlingame, of Noble County, who is to speak at the coming farmers' institute, is one of the men who has achieved success and won recognition by patient continuance in well-doing. His painstaking, conscientious work through many years has given him a wealth of experience, invaluable to the man who is struggling against adverse conditions on the farm. The story of his work in reclaiming a worn-out hill farm, growing and bringing into fruitage a commercial orchard, and developing a home market for its products is an inspiration to all.

Mr. Burlingame will discuss the wartime problems of the hill farmer. His views on marketing and community co-operation should receive close attention.

Mr. Burlingame will take part on the program of the "Hanover Farmers' Institute and Corn show next Friday and Saturday, December 13-14. The complete program appeared in yesterday's Advocate.

Human Fruitage.

Nature does not bear fruit for herself, but for man. The branch does not bear the rich clusters for its own selfish appetite. Our fruitage must be for mankind. Your aim is a mistaken one if you are seeking spiritual comfort, quiet satisfaction, joy here and hereafter, just for your own little self. —Christian Herald.

No, Maude dear, a little bit off the top isn't apt to make a man level-headed.

QUICKEST PAIN KILLER ON EARTH

Mustarine Stops All Pain in Half the Time it Takes Other Remedies—Oftentimes in Five Minutes. Subdues Inflammation and Reduces Swellings.

TAKES ONLY ONE SMALL BOX TO PROVE IT

Don't be disappointed! Never mind if you have tried others and liniments and other things that don't start to banish the pain and agony till day after tomorrow. If you want to get rid of aches—draw out inflammation and make all swellings disappear with amazing speed get a box of MUSTARINE right away. Chemist Beey discovered Mustarine. He made it of good honest, true yellow mustard—added their pain-destroying ingredients—took out the blister and astonished the medical profession by giving to the world in a preparation ten times better than Grandmother's good old-fashioned but dirty and blistering mustard plaster.

MILLIONS USE IT TO STOP A COLD

"Pape's Cold Compound" ends severe colds or gripe in few hours.

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs. It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose-running, relieves sick headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.

THORNVILLE.

Dr. William Barber of Pleasantville was here Thursday.

Harry Vanhook of Columbus called on friends here Friday.

Paul Yost of Tiffin, a former Thornville boy, is reported seriously ill with pneumonia. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conny Yost were called by telegram Thursday.

Our people were roused from their rest Saturday night by the ringing of the fire bell. The fire was at the residence of Mr. Stanton and was caused by explosion of an oil stove. The fire company was soon there and put out the fire with little loss of property.

The flu is prevailing here to an extent more than at any time heretofore. There are about 15 cases at this time.

Prof. Meehling was taken down with flu Friday. Three teachers are also ill with the same disease. Schools and churches are closed again.

Lieutenant Guy Poulson is at home on a furlough.

W. E. Trovinger is ill. Will McAndlish and family and Jack Spangler motored to Florida and will spend the winter there. Miss Emma Stevens left last Tuesday for Cleveland where she will visit her brother. From there she will go to Los Angeles and make her home with her brother and sister.

ORGANIZED FOOD PRODUCTION.

The government, it is announced, will soon give out a program for an organized movement to increase the food supply.

The success won in the Liberty Bond, Red Cross, War Savings Stamp and War Work drives ought to teach us a lot about organizing food production. These drives were put over by going from house to house and asking people to give, the ground being well prepared by newspaper advertising.

Now let the government handle the food production in the same way. Every farmer in the country should be visited by some representative of the Farm Bureau or other local organization of business men. Personal interviews will obtain co-operation from many people, where you would not get it from agitation at public meetings.

The organizations conducting these canvasses should find out from each man what obstacles exist that prevent him from raising bigger crops. If it is lack of farm machinery and tools, arrangements could be made in a great many cases to share the use of such machinery with neighbors. If a man needs more capital for a legitimate extension of his business, and if he has good security, he should get the funds. If he needs more labor, he should be shown that the government employment services and other agencies will care for his needs.

Frequently the only thing standing in the way of a bigger crop is the conservation characteristic of many men. The hesitating farmer should be assured that the community stands back of him in the effort to increase food production. After that pledge is made, it should be rigidly kept, and the farmer should not be left in the lurch for lack of needed equipment or labor.

Gladys asks what "indirect firing" is. Only instance in our experience was the kid who used to bend over his desk and elevate a "paper wad" over the head of the next row.

Half of the people who give their whole time to the Red Cross work without any salary, while some folks who criticize them never do anything without being paid for it.

Considering the extensive machinery we operate to bring our chicken thieves to justice, it won't do to let the man who caused the murder of 10,000,000 people to go scot free.

Dr. Alice Gregory, who healed 200 wounded German prisoners, says only one of them said "Thank you." Super men of course are not bound to show courtesy to common folks.

High prices are to continue through the year according to the economists, and the necessities of the household will still be luxuries.

Henry Ford is to have a newspaper. If it is like the journalistic venture of some other rich men, Henry will no longer have to worry to know what to do with his money.

SOCIALISM AND DEMOCRACY

The extremes to which the socialists of Europe are going should be a warning to those who sometimes listen to our soap box orators.
All through Europe the socialists are expressing their hatred of what they call the "bourgeois" class. The "bourgeois" is defined by the dictionary as a person of the commercial middle class.

Practically it means anyone who has thrift and energy enough to lay up a little money. The hard working grocer who drives his little Ford around the corner to deliver you your ten cent box of cereal, is a hated "bourgeois," because he has a bit of money ahead. "Down with him." The tollsme mechanic who has saved up money enough to buy a Liberty Bond or War Savings Stamp would probably be called a "bourgeois."

In Russia, where socialism has had free rein, the so-called "bourgeois" class has been deprived of all share in the government. The gang in power dissolved their legally elected constitutional assembly by a decree as autocratic as the Czar ever issued. Universal there will be no universal suffrage, because the bourgeoisie are not likely to be permitted to vote. Even in Germany the drift seems to be to exclude the "bourgeois" classes from a share in forming the new government.

The principles of American democracy teach that all men are free and equal, and all are entitled to a share in the government. Russian Bolshevism, which our socialists admire so heartily, teaches that the men of prudence and thrift, who help to create the means of production, is the enemy of his community, and must be excluded from share in the government. While this is a country of free speech, and it never pays to confine hot air, our people should realize just what socialism means and what it would do if it could.

WILL EDUCATION PAY?

Rec ent years have seen a great reaction from old fashioned book education, and the demand now is for young people who shall be efficient in business. In many ways this reaction was necessary. Yet it must not go so far that young people will not care for general intelligence.

It is certainly upsetting to an ambitious boy, when he finds that a first class mechanic earns more than the average school teacher, or minister or newspaper writer. Why spend years in study, when he can earn more by perfecting himself in some form of shop practice?

It is a pretty serious matter if the present demand for skilled mechanics shall lead our young people to ignore the value of high school and college education. Fortunately most men who make good pay as mechanics have common sense and realize the value of education. They want their children to have more of it than the other generation had. So it is hardly likely that our high schools and colleges will be depopulated.

The country will suffer, however, if it fails to provide an adequate return to brain workers, to intelligent and educated people who have spent time and money in acquiring knowledge, and fitting themselves to be better citizens. But educated people must do their share, in making themselves fit for active participation in life. Education must do something more than develop their critical and analytic faculties.

Many men have developed through book study an exceptional cultivated power of observation. They are refined, penetrating students of life, can discourse charmingly and give sound judgment on any subject. But they can't do anything. The power of initiative was left out of their education. That kind of training is not fitted to modern life.

THE NEW DIPLOMACY.

(Saturday Evening Post.)
A great many forward-thinking Germans have lately been pondering some disagreeable facts. For example, Germany is on a losing battle. Her war machine has been cut in half by war. Her power to grant credit has been frightfully crippled, her banks being loaded down with dubious war paper. Nobody is afraid of her any more.

Formerly her position in international trade was buttressed by what amounted nearly to a monopoly of potash and dyestuffs. Now England and the United States, at least, have complete dyestuff industries of their own. The world has discovered it can get potash without German potash. In 1917 only Holland and Austria-Hungary took any considerable quantities of it. Formerly Germany sold England enough sugar to help the trade balance materially; but England has learned to get sweetening elsewhere.

An investigation by Professor Goetz, extracts from which have recently come to hand, reaches the unpleasant conclusion that Germany now has almost nothing with which she can command foreign trade—almost nothing as to which she can say confidently: "We can build upon this because the world has practically got to come to us for it." There is really no sheet anchor like our wheat, meat, cotton, copper, and England's coal and ships. The allied and neutral world can get on without German goods.

A great many Germans are studying that proposition. The agreeable dream of commanding vast stores of raw materials in Eastern and Southeastern Europe and Asia Minor through military domination has vanished.

Germany is opening, not without misgivings, a quite new book in diplomacy. These texts are that a vital supply of raw materials must be secured from the world by conciliation. Nothing can be commanded, nothing enforced. German (talk, only six months ago, of levying upon raw material supplies in the Ukraine and elsewhere, and even of demanding a great ransom for Belgium in the form of raw materials, sounds like silly mockery now. Her vital need now is to induce the world to trade with her.

THE LAW AND THE RAILROADS.

(Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.)
The new director general of railroads can enter upon the duties which he will inherit from William G. McAdoo with less embarrassment than might have been the case had not President Wilson chosen him to do about the railroads in his address to congress on Monday. He should feel free and in duty bound to conduct his office with respect to the express provisions of law and to nothing else.

The law provides for restoration of the transportation system to their owners not more than 21 months after the proclamation of peace. Unless congress legislate to the contrary the director general should be guided in all his policies and procedure by the plain declaration of the existing act. The president's admission that he has no suggestion of additional legislation to be made closes every avenue of excuse for extending the "scrambling" process which can result only in making it more difficult to possibly obey the law as written. The war emergency having passed, good faith demands that the director general of railroads look ahead to relinquishing the government's grip on the carriers. If the president later on comes to make a recommendation and it congress is in the future disposed to enact a new law in regulation of the railroads, well and good. But for the present the duty of the director general to prepare for handing them back to their owners is clear.

AFRAID TO CRITICIZE.

(Philadelphia Record.)
General Pershing is such a popular hero, and enjoys such a flawless reputation because of his great achievements, with possibilities of still higher distinctions awaiting him in the future, that it is diverting to see how wide a berth the whole yelping pack of Republican hounds in Congress give him. They snarl and snap at the Democratic officials in charge of the conduct of the war, losing no opportunity to misrepresent and malign them, and when Pershing is mentioned they sneak away with their tails between their legs and without a single bark.

This awe of the great general was amusingly illustrated the other day, when the senate committee on military affairs met to discuss the casualty lists and to find why the unexpectedly heavy losses at the front were not more promptly reported. Secretary of War Baker was summoned before them, and Senators Hiram Johnson, Weeks, Frelinghuysen, et al., were primed for a grilling in their most approved manner—a manner, by the way, which was largely responsible for the Republican State of Massachusetts deciding at last to elect to retire Weeks and replace him with a Democrat. Unfortunately for the probers, Secretary Baker was accompanied by General March, chief of staff, and Assistant Secretary Keppel, and they had no trouble in showing that if there has been any delay in reporting the casualty lists the fault lies at the front, and not at Washington. Secretary Baker, corroborated by General March, stated that he had repeatedly cabled to General Pershing to expedite lists, and that suggestions to this end had been made to him, but that he had replied that the work was being done as rapidly as possible under difficult circumstances. And doubtless he is right in saying so, for there is no reason to suppose that the general is inefficient in this than in other matters.

When the senators found that Pershing cheerfully accepted responsibility for the delay their voices, so far as censuring him, became mute. They had long to say to the secretary of war, but they had no desire to tackle, or to appear to find fault with, the distinguished soldier commanding in France. No one cared to play the role of critic of the popular idol. So the general was adjourned, and another great Republican exposure of Democratic inefficiency was laid to rest.

Spirit of the Press

Our Army of Occupation.
The American expeditionary army is still winning victories. The march through Luxembourg was an agreeable surprise all around. The doughboys found a far warmer welcome than they had expected. The Luxemburgers, accustomed to the curt and overbearing manners of the German officers, were charmed by the unassuming and businesslike demeanor of the American soldiers and officers. As the Americans press on toward the Rhine, they will continue to be cool and self-controlled. The Germans residing in the Rhine provinces are by reports, by no means hostile to the occupying forces. Well, the German behavior toward the Americans. The example of the Americans, as well as that of the British forces, ought to have a strong moral effect on the turbulent Germans.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Keeping on Strong Legs.
Mexico has been reduced to a semblance of respect for American lives and property, Germany has been licked, Japan is silent. Why? Because America is on a losing battle. Her war machine has been cut in half by war. Her power to grant credit has been frightfully crippled, her banks being loaded down with dubious war paper. Nobody is afraid of her any more.

Within the Gates.
The government has given warning that there should be no relaxation of the co-ercive campaign carried on against the German espionage agents. As it well, it seems to us, for the authorities, when it is proper, to give the public some glimpses of what has been going on in the way of plots against our country. This will stimulate public opinion and brace morale against the insidious effects of the poison spread by a conspiracy not yet destroyed. We know that the Germanian plots were allied to Bolshevism in this country as well as here, and we know that Socialists of this brand are today impotent and even willing to trade. As sources of evil poison they still remain, and it is for level headed Americans to see that they are made helpless.—Chicago Tribune.

Love is the only game in which it is possible to take a heart with a diamond.

IDEAS AND IDLENESS.

(My Clark C. Stockford.)
How many men do you know who consciously set afloat any new ideas? Didn't take you long to count them, did it? But why so few of them? Ever think of that? Here's why: Most folks hesitate to do anything original; they hesitate to speak their own thoughts for fear others will think them presumptuous. They shrink from criticism. Think of Benjamin Franklin, Alexander Graham Bell, Albert Einstein, Edison, and thousands of others. How about the ridicule and criticism heaped upon them and upon the products of their "brainless" heads? Where would we have been today had any of these men accounted to ridicule? The man who has a real idea isn't looking for praise or plaudits. He is looking to improve things and he expects—and gets—ridicule from the very folks whom his improvement will benefit. But that doesn't deter him. Results are the only thing that interest him, accidents don't affect him. Bumps are only a part of the day's work.

Real, original ideas are at a premium these days—and they do say that it doesn't hurt one's head much to have them. But they do it. Ideas stimulate the growth of gray matter. Recently a young man unfolded an idea evolved from his business—a staid, cut and dried, dyed-in-the-wool business that is literally hog-tied with tradition. But this young man saw a better way and he resolved to go out and meet it. To some his idea seemed revolutionary; one or two friends smiled encouragingly and said 'twas evolutionary.

So the young man went ahead. Yes, he evolved many bumps, but those didn't scare him. The little things didn't matter, he was looking at the greater reward in the end. He accepted the ridicule and criticisms with a smile and today he is reaping the reward of an original idea.

How about yourself? Is your grit of that consistency? Think it over—take a mental measure of yourself and see if you are afraid to back your original ideas with consistent and continued action in the face of discouragements. Time alone will tell whether or not they are practical. The big thing from your standpoint is:

"Spring it!"—put it to the test! That's what counts. Never mind the credit for the idea. You'll win, no matter what the immediate results for such action will help you to grow.

THE PRESIDENT ABROAD.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
No other American abroad ever received the marks of profound respect that will be showered on Woodrow Wilson when he visits the continent after his retirement from the presidency and rulers and people paid him homage as a great commander and a great American. In his life and the world's attitude was that toward one whose achievements were of the past, Theodore Roosevelt visited Europe but he was an ex-president whose public activities were supposedly past.

Mr. Wilson goes as the active head of the world's greatest democracy to confer with other leaders of democracy in the settlement of the most momentous problems of statecraft the nations have ever faced. He goes as chief of one of the most powerful powers in the recent fighting. As spokesman in the past not alone of the United States but of the nations leagued to crush Prussianism he takes to Versailles a prestige second to that of only one other individual in the world—Marshal Ferdinand Foch.

It is no idle statement that the fate of nations hang on the forthcoming conversation at Versailles, or, that the voice of president Wilson will weigh as much weight in these deliberations as that of any other individual there. The whole world pays homage to the American who kept the world's diplomacy on the path of peace during the stormy months of doubt and wavering uncertainty.

What the president is to say to the delegates assembled in the Paris suburb of Versailles, and possibly his closest personal adherents know. That the famous fourteen points will form the basis of his argument is known, but not much more.

American people have stood unitedly behind the president through out the contest with the central powers. Now that fighting is over, they will still support him so long as he urges the kind of peace they feel they have fought for. Such a peace will contain a larger proportion of justice than of mercy; a peace designed primarily not to relieve Germany's distresses but to punish for Germany's crimes.

It is a little disconcerting to observe that certain German leaders, who were the personal attendance of Mr. Wilson at the peace conference, as if his presence will guarantee to them easier terms in the final judgment. Americans are not so easily deceived. They expect an advocate of an easy peace for the fallen Prussian, for the fallen Prussian deserves no easy peace. Rather, the terms of settlement must be just and harsh, lest some future militarist autocrat, observing the mildness of the sentence now imposed upon Potsdam, may himself attempt to turn the world upside down for his own ambitious gratification.

America, as we stated at the prestige to be enjoyed by their president, for it is in large part a reflection of the world's admiration for this nation's achievements in battle. They do not, however, desire their president to make himself merely an angel of mercy. Germany must settle the score.

RECOMMENDED WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

(Ohio State Journal.)
In his latest message to Congress President Wilson recommended the adoption of the woman suffrage amendment. And it was with an impressive argument he did so. The women's patriotism in the recent war was unsurpassed. We will venture to say she did ten times as much for the country as the men did. It is time to give her a voice in its affairs. They remind us of the man on a lonely rock in a rushing stream, pushing away every outstretched hand seeking refuge and safety, his only claim being he got there first.

Did You Know
That Edward Eggleston was born at Vevay, Indiana, December 10, 1827? He was unable to attend school regularly on account of delicate health and was almost entirely self-educated. When about twenty years old he became a Methodist circuit rider in a parish that "look in on half of creation for it had no boundary on the west." In 1866 he removed to Evanston, Illinois, and took a place on the editorial staff of the "Little Corporal." In 1870 he went to New York as literary editor of the "Independent." From 1874 to 1879 he was pastor of a Brooklyn church. His first venture in literature was "The Hoosier Schoolmaster" published as a serial in 1871. In 1878 "Loxy" appeared as a serial in the "Century" making its author known to a wider circle of readers. The latter part of Dr. Eggleston's life was devoted to historical writings of interest and value. He died September 3, 1902.

THE COURTS

Common Pleas Court.
Elias Swick et al. vs. Eliza Swick et al. An action in partition. All the parties interested have answered or have made default as to answering, and an order of partition was granted. The commissioners appointed by the court to make partition are: Geo. Tavenner, Samuel Hilleary and Samule Nethers.
Carl Norpell vs. Horatio R. Ward et al. An action in partition. Decree for plaintiff, and decree in favor of the First National bank on its answer and cross-petition.

The motion for a new trial, filed by the defendant in the case of Chas. Donaldson vs. John H. Swisher and Carl Swisher, has been set down for hearing next Monday, December 16. In this case plaintiff recovered a verdict for the sum of $146 and interest. The matter grew out of a collision between plaintiff's horses and buggy and the automobile driven by defendants. Defendants ask the court to set aside the verdict of the jury. Several matters are stated in the motion for a new trial and alleged by defendants to be grounds why the verdict should be set aside.

Paul E. Shipp vs. Chas. S. Brown et al. An action on an account; judgment entered of dismissal.
Bishop vs. Bishop. Assigned for hearing Friday next upon a motion that defendant show cause why he is not guilty of contempt of court for the non-payment of alimony.

State of Ohio vs. Forest Reed. An affidavit was filed that Mrs. Henry Reed is critically ill with influenza, and that she is a material witness for defendant. A certificate of the attending physician accompanies the affidavit. The defendant is charged with entering a dwelling house with intent to commit a felony. Case was continued to the January term next.

Susan Close vs. Ross Weiss Co. Motion made to assign case for trial. To be assigned early in the January term.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easy, and cheaply made at home, but is best for all quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap to make, but it really has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any drugstore, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, whooping cough or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Standers, Walkers, "Gets-It" For Corns

WORLD HAS NEVER KNOWN ITS EQUAL

Corn-Pain Is Excess—The Corn Is Doomed!

peel right off like a banana skin—and that's magic "Gets-It." Tight shoes and dancing even when you have a corn need not disturb you if you apply a few drops of "Gets-It" on the corn or callus. You want a corn-peeler, not a corn-fooler. You don't have to fool with corns—you peel them right off with your fingers, by using "Gets-It." Cutting makes corns grow and bleed. Why use irritating salves or make a bubble of your toe with tape or bandages? Why putter and still have the corn? Use "Gets-It"—your corn-pain is over, the corn is a "gone" sure as the sun rises.

"Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Newark and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by T. J. Evans, W. A. Egan, City Drug Store, C. T. Bricker.

HEARST'S ORDERS

measure for strict American neutrality. Later, he said, German propaganda and criminal acts in this country and atrocities abroad, caused him to change his attitude.

"Like other Americans," said the senator, "I have passed from one phase of the situation to another—peaceful neutrality, armed neutrality, war. I supported in the days of our neutrality the embargo idea and as an American I declined to associate myself with those who became partisans of Germany."

Referring to the letter of a German agent, dated July 22, 1915, saying Senator Hitchcock seemed "friendly" for the embargo movement and had said it would "sweep the United States," Mr. Hitchcock pointed out that he had introduced a bill for a munitions embargo, more than eight months before and had made a speech in the senate in the bill's behalf.

"In those days the country was under a pledge of neutrality by virtue of the president's proclamation made when the war broke out," he said. "We should not doubt have remained neutral at least nominally and official, if Germany had not by a series of outrages made our attitude first difficult and then impossible."

"My attitude naturally changed with changing conditions. I stood first for a strict peaceful and impartial neutrality even to the extent of selling no arms and ammunition and lending no money to either side."

"Next when Germany began a systematic attack on our commerce I was ready to fight to protect our neutrality."

"I supported the president's request that we authorize him to assert and protect our neutrality by arming our merchant ships and I had charge in the senate of what was known as the armed neutrality resolution, which died so dramatically here in the senate at noon on March 4th, 1917."

"A month later when the issue changed from armed neutrality to war I had charge of the declaration of war which was briefly debated and passed by the senate April 4, 1917."

Professor Albert Bushnell Hart of Harvard University, pointed to his record and to his published articles on the war, before the senate judiciary committee today as evidence that his name had no place on the German "list of important names" in the committee's investigation of German propaganda.

Professor Hart described his acquaintance with no Germans and declared he had not shared their views at any time. He said he refused to join German university alliances at the invitation of Otto Merkell of New York because he did not wish to become identified with such an organization.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.
Chicago, Dec. 10.—Scarcity of offerings gave an upward swing today to the corn market. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1 1/2 cts higher, with January 12 1/2 to 12 3/4 and by a decided February 1.30 3/4 to 1.30 3/4 were followed by a moderate sag then by a decided advance all around.

Oats advanced with corn. After opening a shade off to close up with January 72 3/4 to 72 1/2 and by a decided close scored slight general gains.

Provisions were dull and steady. The market appeared to be governed by the firmness of hog values.

Pittsburgh Live Stock.
Pittsburgh, Dec. 10.—Hogs, receipts 23,500; market lower; heavies and heavy Yorkers 17.50; light Yorkers and pigs 16.00@16.25.

Calves, receipts 200, market lower; top 12.50.

Wall Street.
New York, Dec. 10.—The stock market was visibly influenced at the opening of today's trading by the optimistic views of Chairman Harr of the United States steel corporation regarding future industrial conditions. Steels, equipments, shippings, oils and specialties scored gains varying from large fractions to one and a half points but rails were less responsive.

Later railroads and motors were added to the list of strong and active issues.

success. Liberty Bonds continued heavy however, the fourth four and a quarter, making a minimum of 95.62.
Advances of the first half hour were abruptly halted by reactions of 1 to 2 points in crucible steel, Studebaker, Industrial alcohol and Mexican Petroleum the latter losing ground on reports of a severance of relations of American oil companies with the Mexican government. Other leaders yielded moderately but losses were balanced by the further strength of shippings, motors, American Car, railway steel, springs, beet sugar, distillers' international nickel and Wilson packing. Rails remained irregular and U. S. Steel eased fractionally. Liberty second 4 1/2 fell to the new low for the year of 92.90.

East Buffalo Live Stock.
East Buffalo, Dec. 10.—Cattle, receipts 350, steady. Calves, receipts 350, slow, 7.00@19.50.

Hogs, receipts 8600, steady; heavy Yorkers 17.50; roughs 12.00@16.80; stags 10.00@13.00.
Sheep and lambs, receipts 4600, slow and unchanged.

To Change Hog Prices.
Chicago, Dec. 10.—Hog prices changes in average prices on hogs at various livestock centers have been undertaken by the United States food administration's stabilization and control committee. At a meeting the committee held here it was announced today that the average price set at Pittsburgh for example will hereafter be $17.65 as against $17.80 which has recently prevailed there.

Chicago Produce.
Chicago, Dec. 10.—Butter firm, creamery 54@57 1/2 cts.
Eggs, receipts 3,923 cases; unchanged. Potatoes, receipts 37 cars; unchanged. Potatoes, receipts 17,500@17.50; light 17.00@17.60; packing 16.85@17.40; throwouts 16.00@16.75; pigs good to choice 14.25@15.50.

FLU BAN
city, and if it is possible to avoid this feature it is the policy of the city to do. Influenza is highly contagious. It is the duty of every citizen to take upon himself to assist by being careful. Many cases can be avoided in the early state by simple and careful treatment. If you are inclined to flu, come so home and call a physician and do not be too eager to leave your home.

"Merchants should see that proper ventilation is effected and that proper care is taken to become overcrowded."

"Movie theaters should not attempt to accommodate more than the seat capacity will permit. They should ventilate properly and pay particular attention to this feature."

"All dancing, social, parties and public gatherings should be avoided, if you would assist in the work of stamping out the disease."

"Street cars and buses should be ventilated properly."

"These are common-sense suggestions, and it is up to the public to heed, or the board of health will be compelled to take measures that will prohibit any business activity in a general way. It is up to the public to assist."

Distance lends enchantment to the view, but the enchantment fades if you have to walk there.

WOMEN ARE FOUND CHAINED TO BIG GUNS

Miss Jessie Donaldson, in charge of the Universal picture, "Borrowed Clothes," featuring Mildred Harris (Mrs. Charles Chaplin), now showing at the Auditorium theater, is one of the few women who have made good on the road with a feature picture. She has been with the Universal company four months and previous to that time was located in New York and when some of our wounded soldier boys were sent back home, assisted in caring for them at one of the hospitals in the metropolis, where she heard tales of horrors of war. Miss Donaldson's home is in Kentucky, and one day they brought in a young soldier from her state. She and the lady who owned the picture, she told of a great drive the allied armies were making when they came upon big artillery guns which they captured and then chained to the guns were women, left behind to die as they guarded the batteries. This happened in many instances, Miss Donaldson was told.

DRAFT RECORDS ARE ORDERED TO WASHINGTON

The local draft board has received instructions to close and seal all records as rapidly as possible and send them to Washington. The former intention was to have all records sealed today, but the inability of some of the boards to complete their work, necessitated an extension. The exact method of proceeding in the sealing is given, and the plans are such that all the records being turned in will be uniform.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

On Board U. S. S. George Washington—President Wilson probably will not sit personally at peace table but will be represented by delegates.

Amsterdam—Polish-American divisions were reported to have embarked for Danzig in West Prussia to occupy provinces of Posen and Silesia.

Vienna—Count Cernin told the Associated Press Austria made desperate efforts to withdraw from war in 1917 but Germany defeated the efforts by threat.

New York—Marshal Foch may visit United States when his duties permit, according to a cablegram to Mayor Hylan.

UNFILED STEEL ORDERS.
(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Dec. 10.—Unfiled orders of the United States corporation on November 30, were $124,663 tons, according to the corporation's monthly statement issued today. This is a decrease of 228,630 tons compared with the orders on October 31.

STRIKE AS PROTEST.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Toledo, Dec. 10.—Protesting against the life imprisonment sentence of Thomas Mooney of San Francisco, 400 employees of the Libbey Glass company are striking. Of this number 200 went out last night and 200 more today. They are planning a public demonstration.

DAYTON ATTORNEY DIES.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Dayton, Dec. 10.—Bernard Focke, 34, prosecuting attorney for this county, died this morning after an illness that kept him from his official duties during considerable part of his tenure of office. Pneumonia caused his death.

REMOVED TO HOSPITAL.
Mrs. W. J. Davis of Hudson avenue was taken ill last night and showed symptoms of influenza. Owing to the scarcity of nurses Mrs. Davis was removed to the City Hospital for treatment.

ST. JOE ROAD.
Mrs. McKinney and daughter Florence, visited in Newark a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazelton were guests at the Haver home, Sunday evening.

Frank Moore of the Denison student army training camp, was home Saturday and Sunday.

Doris Rowe spent Sunday at the home of his parents near Johnstown.

Levis Cuth's house is about complete and they contemplate moving there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Trenor and Mrs. Whalen of Columbus, motored over and visited at the Trenor home, Monday.

While little David Ralback was with his father hauling gravel on the Cornell farm late Saturday evening, he fell under the wagon and the wheel passed over him badly cutting his arm and leg. Dr. Laycock gave first aid and he has been taken to the Newark hospital for treatment. His friends hope a speedy recovery for the little fellow.

Looking Ahead.
A baby boy arrived one morning. Hunter, three years old, had been given two billy goats for his last birthday. That morning his father said: "Now Hunter, you don't need two goats, suppose you give your little brother one. What do you say?" Hunter didn't say anything for a minute, then he said: "Father, I've been thinking it over, and I've decided maybe I'd better save that goat for my own little boy."

Taking Our Share.
In life it is as it is in armies; there is a share of hardship for each one. "Each man shall bear his own burden." This is part of the discipline of life and it only makes confusion when any refuse to take their share. It is the wide distribution of the burden of society upon many different shoulders that makes the world's work go forward even as smoothly as it does. One man who will not take his share of hardship is an enemy of all willing workers.

Mrs. Thomas Holman of Ridge avenue, who has been ill for the past month with influenza and pneumonia, is improving.

Nuxated Iron Helps to Spread Health and Strength to 3,000,000 People Annually—Get Your Share!

When you think of successful men and women you know—people who are doing things worth while—you will find that they possess force, vim and energy—the kind that simply brim over when the blood is filled with iron.

Iron is red blood food—it helps put strength and energy into the veins of men and roses into the cheeks of women.

A prominent New York Surgeon and former Adjunct Professor of the New York Post Graduate Medical School and Hospital, Dr. Kenneth K. MacAlpine, says: "If people would only realize that iron is just as indispensable to the blood as is the air to the lungs and he just as particular about keeping up a sufficient supply at all times there would, in my opinion, be far less disease resulting from anemia, weakened conditions. In my opinion, Nuxated Iron is the most valuable tonic, strength and blood builder any physician can prescribe."

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron, which has been prescribed and recommended by physicians and which is used by over three million people annually is not a secret remedy, but one which is well-known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated and does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money.

AMUSEMENTS

ALHAMBRA

Wednesday and Thursday. With terrific speed there is unfolded the greatest patriotic production of the day in "On the Jump," a timely William Fox comedy, featuring George Walsh, the famous screen comedian, which will come to the Alhambra theatre for two days, commencing Wednesday. The picture deals with Liberty Loans and George Walsh, as a salesman who emulates Paul Harvey, sells over $100,000 worth.

He reigns as a newspaper reporter when he becomes suspicious of the new proprietor and while acting as a salesman he develops leads that later result in the arrest of the newspaper owner, and there is unearthed Germany's master plot to control the American press.

AUDITORIUM

Mr. Charles Chaplin. Notwithstanding the bad rainy weather yesterday, large crowds saw Mrs. Charles Chaplin (Mildred Harris), in her latest Jewel Production, Lois Weber's "Borrowed Clothes." In addition to providing a beautiful story for Mrs. Chaplin, Miss Seiber has surrounded her with a cast of motion picture actors and actresses of nation reputation.

Scene from Peck's Bad Boy at The Auditorium Saturday Night.

Nichols, Fantine LaRue, Edythe Chapman and Helen Rosson. Nichols plays the role of Mary Kirk's father, a stern, unsympathetic man whose great passion is to keep the family name free from stain or scandal. Fantine LaRue, in the role of Rita Morris, is one of those seductive vampire women. Edythe Chapman is Mary Kirk's mother, and Helen Rosson plays the role of Louise, the heartless sister. Lewis J. Cody's role in "Borrowed Clothes" is one with which few audiences have any sympathy—a young man of wealth who takes a fancy to a poor and beautiful girl and seeks to make her acquaintance. But in the end he proves his admiration is sincere and the play ends happily.

The Hearst-Pathe News always interesting was an added feature and for today the Outing-Chester series of films will be resumed "A Tropic Melting Pot," rough-neck and cavalier, noble and savage, prince, pauper and pirate, they drift into gay cities and hidden villages of South America and form a strange race of fascinating cosmopolitans. You see this all in this extra added feature.

The Biggest Show on Earth. How John Stanton, son of a millionaire manufacturer of munitions, the role played by Charles Ray in his latest Paramount photoplay, "The Claws of the Hun," produced under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince foils the plot of German spies to obtain the secret formula of a high explosive, forms a thrilling episode of that unusually strong picture which will be displayed at the Auditorium next Friday.

John Stanton long has desired to enlist for duty "somewhere in France," but his mother who is ill and fearful, exists a promise from him not to enlist, because she could not survive his departure for the front. He is called a slacker by his friends and when his sweetheart tells him coldly, he is in despair. In his father's safe reposes the formula of a high explosive entrusted to him by the United States Government, and Stanton learns and frustrates the plot of several German spies to obtain possession of it.

Charlie Chaplin in "Shoulder Arms" is an added feature.

"The Very Idea." Manager Farnberg is pleased to announce to his theatre covers an engagement of a play that set New York, Chicago, Boston and other cities all talking and broke theatre records in those cities. It is none other than William Le Baron's great three-act comedy, "The Very Idea." This play in New York ran one solid year at the Astor Theatre and for the entire year kept all New York laughing. It has been called by critics a farce, but it is more than that, for there isn't a dull moment from the rise to the fall of the curtain. Its author possesses a strong sense of dramatic value and his clever lines and funny situations never fail to score. It is a scheme of a scientist to provide his sister and brother-in-law with an heir to complete their happiness, a 100 per cent. perfect baby that they can adopt for their own, that provides the fun for the play. "The Very Idea" is presented with an excellent cast of fun makers and the entire New York production is promised. Seats for this attraction will be placed on sale Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Bouncer of the Blues. The large audiences which are everywhere enjoying the new "Peck's Bad Boy" speak well for the coming return engagement of this popular comedy at the Auditorium theatre Saturday. Jacques Baume as the Bad Boy, is surrounded with an organization which works unceasingly to provide amusement that never fails to please. Anyone who has treasured up pleasant memories of his youth is sure to have it brought back again while witnessing "Peck's Bad Boy" in its new and improved condition—brighter, bigger and better than ever.

GRAND. Tuesday and Wednesday. Gladys Leslie, Vitagraph's dainty and vivacious star (with the million dollar smile) never was on so sparkling stage, coming to motion pictures shortly after her education was completed in Columbia University. She is especially charming as Primrose in "Wild Primrose," the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature which will be seen in the Grand theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday. In the guise of a wild, untamed mountain girl she goes into the aristocratic home of her father whom she has not seen since he deserted her mother when she was a child. She goes there in a spirit of hate to humiliate him but remains to win the affection of all.

THE LYRIC. The Majestic Merry Makers opened a week's engagement at the Lyric yesterday presenting a musical comedy called "The Great Handicap." Real comedians, good musical numbers, a lively singing quartette and a peppy chorus who are good lookers and better dancers make a combination which will be welcomed the balance of the week by Lyric patrons. Special scenery is used for each bill and several novelties original with the Majestic will be introduced during their stay.

FOR HEAD COLDS, PLEURISY AND TONSILITIS

Use BACON'S FORKOLA. Thousands have successfully used it to cure coughs, chest colds and sore throats overnight without stomach dosing. Puts an end to lumbago, neuralgia, neuritis. Stops rheumatic pains and recovers swollen joints with a speed that is amazing. Never be without this great household remedy, for there is nothing better for sprains, strains, sore muscles, swelling, bruises, stiff neck and back-ache. Be sure it's FORKOLA, 25 cents and 50 cents sizes, and bear in mind that every druggist will refund purchase price to any dissatisfied user. Evans' Drug Store can supply you. (Adv.)

VEGETABLE TEA FOR CONSTIPATION

Thousands of families brew it at home and keep well.

Sick headache, nervousness, sallow skin and drooping eyes are nearly always caused by constipation and can easily be conquered by the use of Dr. Carter's K. and B. Tea. Brew it at home the same as you would the regular mealtime tea. Drink a cupful just before you go to bed. A small package will last a long time and any druggist will tell you that he has been selling it for years and that many people swear by it. Drink it for inactive liver and clogged up bowels. You'll like it. Being purely vegetable and gentle in action, it is fine for children and nearly all of them like it. (Adv.)

AS YOUNG AS YOUR KIDNEYS

The secret of youth is ELIMINATION OF POISONS from your body. This done, you can live to be a hundred and enjoy the good things of life with as much "pep" as you did when in the springtime of youth. Keep your body in good condition, that's the secret. Watch the kidneys. The kidneys and digestive organs are the main causes. The kidneys filter and purify the blood. All the blood passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. They strain or filter out the impurities. That is their work. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you have nothing to fear. Drive the poisonous wastes and deadly uric acid accumulations from your system. Take GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules at intervals and you will always be in perfect working order. You will feel strong and vigorous. Nerves and muscles will be elastic and your face will radiate youth and health. GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories at Haarem, Holland. They are not a patent medicine, but a guaranteed remedy which has been used by the sturdy Dutch for over 200 years and which has helped them to develop into one of the strongest and healthiest races in the world. Get them from your druggist. Do not take a substitute. In sealed packages—three sizes. (Adv.)

SICK HEADACHE GOES QUICKLY

End that distressing sick headache that keeps you feeling miserable with a laxative tea that won't fail.

is what you need. Splendid for liver and bowels, for upset stomach, bad breath and constipation. Same old remedy in the same old box.

POWERFUL PILE REMEDY DISCOVERED

Has never Failed to End Most Obstinate Case of Piles in Few Days.

For years it has been proved that so-called external remedies applied to or inserted in the rectum cannot cure piles, and at the best can only give temporary relief. Surgical operations also do not remove this cause, but simply the formation. This wonderful prescription known as Miro Pile Remedy, is so efficient in the treatment of piles, that even chronic cases of from 20 to 30 years standing with profuse bleeding have been completely cured in from three to ten days. Think of it! Just a few doses of a carefully balanced prescription and the most persistent case of piles is absorbed, never to return. Just read what Henry J. Stone of the Lorain, Ohio, Fire Department says: "All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice. Surely its worth the little trouble to obtain it to be rid of piles forever."

IMPORTANT: What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although this condition may accompany a true case of piles. For this condition Miro Pile Ointment has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal prescription. For sale at T. J. Evans' Pharmacy. (Adv.)

SELWIDE BROOKS, VICE-PRESIDENT

149 D.L. Paid Dated Burlington, Vt., Dec. 9th, 1918. 3 P. M.

Geo. M. Fenberg, Mgr. Auditorium Theatre, Newark, Ohio.

Our date for the big New York Success, "The Very Idea," the play that ran at the Astor Theatre for one year, at your theatre was originally set for Wednesday, Dec. 11th, but we are asking you to change this date to Thursday, Dec. 12th, Evening Only, as we have a long jump into your city and it takes some time to put up our two massive sets. You can place on the Bill-Boards the posters, etc., but be sure you have correct date in newspapers. We are bringing the entire New York Co., excepting Mr. Bennett, and we assure you his role is ably taken care of by that sterling actor, Frank Reddick.

You can promise your theatre goes EXCRUCIATINGLY HILARIOUS SITUATIONS, SCREAMS OF LAUGHTER AND GALES OF MIRTH, AND YOU CAN GUARANTEE THE ATTRACTION. NOW GO AFTER THEM, AS NEWARK HAS THE REPUTATION OF BEING A GOOD SHOW TOWN.

WEBER & ANDERSON.

Afraid To Tell Mother!

The child won't play or smile. He is real sick. His tongue is white, breath feverish, stomach sour. He fears he is in for a dose of awful castor oil, calomel or pills. How he hates them. He would rather remain sick.

If his mother would only learn the value of candy "Cascarets." How children love this candy cathartic—how surely it acts on liver and bowels.

TO MOTHERS! Each 10 cent box of Cascarets contains full directions for dose for children aged one year old and upwards. Nothing else "works" the nasty bile, sour fermentations and constipation poison from the tender little bowels so gently, yet so thoroughly. Even cross, feverish, bilious children gladly take Cascarets without being coaxed. Cascarets taste just like candy. Cascarets never gripe, never sicken, never injure, but above all, they never disappoint the worried mother.

AMERICANS HAVE STRONG NERVES

Nervousness and Nerve Troubles on the Decline

"Nothing wrong with your nerves," is a saying that is fast dying out in this country. While nerve trouble is no organic disease, a leading nerve specialist remarked: "A man or woman might better bleed a leg than have a shattered nervous system."

Overwork and worry drains the nerve cells of their reserve strength and food, and then follows the sleepless night, indigestion, poor appetite, impure blood and general nervous breakdown.

The thing to do in such cases no longer troubles doctors and their patients who know from their own experience the value of Phosphated Iron. They know that a few weeks' regular use of this nerve food and red blood builder will strengthen and brace up the whole nervous system, because Phosphated Iron gives the tired, hungry, worn-out nerve cells phosphates and iron in a form easily and quickly absorbed; as one happy customer writes: "You can't feel it taking hold of the nerves and blood, after a short time you feel like a new person; life seems a pleasure and worth living once again."

In every section where Phosphated Iron has been used there has been a big decrease of nerve troubles and it will prove a welcome relief to any sufferer. You can bank on it for results—it's sure.

To insure physicians and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron, look for the name on the capsules only, do not take pills or tablets, insist on capsules.

BETTER THAN SALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dizziness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brains and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

Resinol

surely did knock out that eczema

Three days ago, my arm was simply covered with red, itching eruption and I thought I was up against it for fair. But Joe had a jar of Resinol in his kit. I used a little and the itching stopped right off. In the morning most of the redness was gone and a few more applications finished it up.

Resinol is a so valuable healing dressing for chafes, burns and sore places generally. Sold by all druggists.

MUSTEROLE—QUICK RELIEF! NO BLISTER!

It Soothes and Relieves Like a Mustard Plaster Without the Burn or Sting

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. It does all the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—does it better and does not blister. You do not have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub it on—and usually the pain is gone!

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients.

They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

When in need of a purgative, do not resort to violent cathartics, but take the gentle, natural laxative—

HUNTER'S LUCK — DISCOVERING A FRIENDLY OASIS

PATRIOTIC LEAGUE'S BAZAAR OPENS WEDNESDAY; HAS MANY BARGAINS

On Wednesday morning the Patriotic League Bazaar will throw open its doors to the public. Long tables of bargains will await the purchaser and the final drawing of the prizes will be on this night and as all stores close at 9:30 the main event will take place at 8:30. This Patriotic League does not wish to come again and again to the people of Newark for funds. It is here to stay and some one must carry on its great work so necessary to our own soldier boys and to the devastated war countries. Just as we must still save food so we must still help the countries over which the curse has passed and this bazaar is the best way of doing it. The easiest way to serve those stricken people.

Personal entertainment as well as a most worthy cause should crowd the corner room of the Y. M. C. A. to the limit and swell the fund of this branch of the Patriotic League to such an extent that for awhile further financial help will be necessary. Public spirited women have already given their time and most generous donations and with a little help from each Newark citizen from Wednesday morning to Saturday night we will go "over the top." Its members feel that we must not let the sacrifices in Flanders' field pictured by Lieut. Col. John McCrae be in vain.

"In Flanders' fields the poppies blow. Between the crosses row on row. That mark our place and in the sky. The larks still bravely singing fly. Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead short days ago. The torch, the flame, the sunlit glow. Loved and were loved; and now we lie In Flanders' fields.

Take up our quarrels with the foe! To you, from failing hands we throw The torch, the flame, the sunlit glow. If ye break faith with us who die, We shall not sleep though poppies grow In Flanders' fields.

Birth Announcement.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gossy, 196 Mahon street, a daughter, Leah Jane, December 5.
Obtained Marriage License.
A marriage license was issued at Newark, Ky., Monday, to Miss Edith Ferris and Frank E. Courson, both of Newark. Miss Ferris is not listed in the local directory, but Courson lives at 348 North Fourth street.
Illness of Nephew.
Mrs. J. J. Winters, South Fourth street, has been called to Shawnee by the serious illness of her nephew, Edgar Snook, who is suffering with pneumonia.
Condition Improved.
The condition of Miss Emma Fetter, who has been seriously ill with influenza at her home, Seventh street, is improved today.
Here a Few Hours.
Captain J. D. Castle, who has been stationed at Hoboken, N. J., awaiting overseas orders, visited his home, Sunday, before reporting at Newport News, to which place he had been transferred. The captain stated that he had received no intimation of his transfer, but he would have mustered out of the service or sent overseas for duty abroad.
Homer Jones Better.
Homer "Rube" Jones, who has been seriously ill with the influenza at his home, in Elmwood Avenue, is greatly improved and will soon be able to sit up. It was reported that he died yesterday that he had passed away, but Mr. Jones stated today that he didn't propose to let the Spanish malady conquer him, at least for some time to come.
First Dance of the Season.
The first dance of the present season will be held this evening at the new dancing emporium over the Meyer & Lindorf store. The hours will be from 8 to 12, and the dancing program will be furnished by the Fields' orchestra.
Seriously Ill.
Robert Dold, drum-major and business manager of the Buckeye band, is seriously ill at his home in East Main street, suffering with the influenza. He was reported as slowly improving today.
Adjourned Session.
The adjourned session of the city council which was to have been held last evening was adjourned for the second time out of respect to President of the Council R. L. Williams, whose mother-in-law, Mrs. Virginia Bunting, died Sunday morning. The next meeting will be on a regular meeting night—Monday, December 16. Council adjourned December 2 out of respect to Councilman Phil Baker, whose wife was a victim of influenza.
Youthful Offenders.
Two lads, 13 and 15 years old, were before Mayor Atherton today, the youngest on a charge of intoxication, and the other for shooting craps in the street. The mayor turned them over to Probate Officer John Dwyer and they were taken before Juvenile Judge Robbins Hunter, who gave them a severe lecture and a suspended sentence, both boys promising to mend their ways.
Today's Police Court.
Three drunks were the toll of police officials' watchfulness last night, and all appeared in police court today and were assessed fines of $5 and the costs, all having the wherewithal with which to liquidate the obligation. One registered from Cleveland, another from Winterburn, W. Va., and the third from Rassel court, Va.
American troops in France have contributed 250,000 francs ($40,000) to the adoption of French orphans, through the Red Cross.

MYSTERY WOMAN MIGHT BE SOLDIER

Newark Man Sought by Army Officials in Neighborhood Where "Woman" Was Seen

That the "woman" who mysteriously spent the night in the woods near the Blue Jay school house, and insisted that no one come near her was a man is strongly suspected. It is intimated that the person may have been David Lalsure, who lives at 140 Union street, this city, and who is wanted as a deserter from the United States army. Lalsure was born at Jacksonville, and officials have been scouring that neighborhood in the last few weeks, in an effort to run him down. His army overcoat and a sweater were found where they had been discarded, but no further trace of him has been found. The peculiar actions of the "woman," her professed fear that the men who were hunting and found her would come near to her have excited suspicion. When the son of Calvin Guttridge, who was in the hunting party attempted to hold his lantern aloft to look at the "woman," she hastily drew her veil over her face. It is stated that Lalsure has a low speaking voice, which might easily be taken for a woman's. Lalsure was sent with a draft contingent to Camp Zachary Taylor, in October. He is 29 years old. He was there but a short time when he reported absent without leave. He returned however but in a short time was gone again and so far has not been apprehended.

Owls Roost on Press.
Opposite the old mill stage station at Tombstone, Ariz., stands a little, low adobe building with a rough board front, the windows painted blue and a door sagging on its strap hinges. A weather-beaten sign across the front proclaims the building as the one-time home of the Tombstone Epitaph, the weekly publication of the Huachuca mining district. Within the ruins of a "G. Washington" hand press, serves as a roosting place for owls. On this old press was printed the editions of the Epitaph containing the list of violent deaths in the district during the week. It also contained stories of gold strikes in the Glory hole, the Lost Chance and the Boom mines. It was the boast of the pioneer editor that he edited the paper with a six-shooter and kept a sawed-off shotgun behind his desk for helter-skelter callers. The Epitaph suspended publication when the mining boom broke many years ago.

"Crime of Being Young."
This expression is attributed to William Pitt the elder, who became earl of Chatham (1709-1778). Certain historians, however, cast some doubt upon the authenticity of the speech, and Dr. Samuel Johnson (1709-1784), the great English lexicographer, who was supposed to have reported it, in his later years practically admitted having made it up. Johnson, no doubt, formed his composition on some note or statement of the actual speech. He said: "That speech I wrote in a garret in Exeter street." The famous passage is: "The atrocious crime of being a young man, which the honorable gentleman has with such spirit and decency charged upon me, I shall neither attempt to palliate nor deny; but content myself with wishing that I may be one of those whose follies may cease with their youth, and not of that number who are ignorant in spite of experience."

Origin of Foolscap.
Several explanations have been given of the meaning of the word "foolscap" as applied to a certain class of paper. One of the explanations is that when Charles I found his revenue short he granted certain privileges, amounting to monopolies, and among these was the manufacture of paper, the exclusive right to which was sold to certain parties, who grew rich and enriched the government at the expense of those who were obliged to use the paper. At this time all English paper bore in watermark, the royal arms. The parliament under Cromwell made a jest of this law, and among other indignities to the memory of Charles II was ordered that the royal arms be removed from the paper and a fool's cap and bells be substituted. These were in their turn removed when the rump parliament was dismissed, but paper for the size of the parliament's journal still bears the name of "foolscap."

Character Formed by Thought.
Every bit of passion, every excited state of mind, every discouraged or despondent thought, all vibrations of anger, hatred, revenge, jealousy, avarice, or any sort of unkindness, will be recorded with scientific accuracy not only in the warp and woof of our character, but also in the fiber of our physical being. Similarly, if you send a current of hope, of love, of joy, or generosity, of nobility, down through the nervous system it will never stop until it has set every cell in your body into the same sort of vibration, stamping hope and joy and generosity and nobility on every tissue of the body and every faculty of the mind. Every nerve, every atom in your body will take on the character and the quality of the thought, motive or mood which set it in motion.—From "Love's Way" by Orison Swett Marden.

Length of Night.
The length of the night at any time of the year may be found by multiplying by two the time of the sun's rising. Doubling the time of its setting will give the length of the day.

Some men are resigned to their fate, others have their resignation required.

Taking Epsom Salts is like drinking lemonade now

Instead of asking for the common Epsom Salts, ask for Epsomade Salts hereafter. You will get a big package for only 15 cents. Epsomade Salts looks and acts exactly like Epsom Salts, because it is Epsom Salts combined with fruit derivatives thus making sparkling, effervescent, lemonade-like drink for the liver and bowels. Take a tablespoonful of this delicious Salts in a glass of cold water when you feel bilious, sick, headachy or constipated and get the quick and splendid action of a dose of Epsom Salts without the horrible taste. Epsomade Salts will replace the old Epsom Salts, Rochelle Salts, Sodium Phosphate and Cathartic Pills in every home, say local druggists. (Adv.)

SOLDIER DIES IN FRENCH HOSPITAL

Granville Boy Sent to Camp From Granville Succumbs to Attack of Pneumonia.

(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, Dec. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Clem Kelley, residents of Granville, have just received word of the death of their son, Clark Kelley, at a hospital in France, some time in October, of pneumonia. Young Kelley, who was a student in Denison and well known in Granville, and Newark, was in charge of a church in West Virginia at the time he was called to the colors. He leaves besides his parents and a brother—now in camp—a young wife to mourn his loss.

Due to conditions brought about by the war by the armistice and now by the deadly influenza, affairs at Denison have been in a fluid state for many months, each day bringing with it some new ruling. At a meeting of the faculty and health officials Monday it was decided that it is better not to close the colleges until the end of the term, December 20th, as it is deemed better to keep the girls where they are comfortably cared for than to send them into the further danger encountered in railroad travel. It is the purpose of the government that each man of the S. A. T. C. shall be mustered out in the complete uniform of the U. S. army, and the Denison unit also will be released on the 20th, if their equipment arrives. It is also said on good authority that the government is working out a plan whereby all those now in the college training camps, shall be given their commissions on completion of their college course, but nothing definite has yet been announced. Many Denison men in cantonments throughout the country have written President Chamberlain their intention of resuming their studies in Denison at the beginning of the winter term, January.

Walter Hilscher, who has been honorably discharged from Camp Taylor, expects to resume work in Denison next term, taking special courses under Professor Coons and Wiley, taking him entrance into Boston Tech next year.

President Chamberlain has cancelled his appointment in Chicago where the meeting of the executive committee of the Northern Baptist convention is held at the University club today. Also to the annual meeting of the association of American Colleges, and to the meeting of American Baptist Colleges of which Dr. Chamberlain is chairman, both to be held in Chicago tomorrow. The work of the demobilization of the S. A. T. C. claims first place in the plans of Denison's executive. Again the ban is placed on public assemblies and for a time any thing like community life will be impossible. The greatest deprivation in sight is the definite abandonment of all plans for the annual Christmas concert. "The Messiah," which has become one of the most cherished customs of the village. The first quarantine played with necessary rehearsals but this latest visitation of the "flu" makes even the shorter presentation, even planned for, quite out of the question. Rehearsals had been called for every evening this week. Mrs. Aler of Cincinnati, formerly Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, had consented to sing the contralto solo; Miss Ruth Barnes, the soprano, and R. W. Soule, the tenor, a cast that would have filled the house to overflowing. In addition to the ban on assemblies, the work of the conductor, Prof. K. H. Eschman, deals the final blow to all hope, an dfor the first time in fifteen years, this Christmas offering will be withheld.

The present weather, if much longer, bids fair to send next year's peach crop into the sea. The ready buds are swelling under the delusion that "spring has come."

Not every one who is ill in Granville is the victim of the influenza, although it seems the part of wisdom to call it "flu" and to omit all neighborly attentions. Corporal Kenneth Ullman, '16, Sigma Chi, who entered Camp Sherman last August and now belongs to the permanent organization, has just received his papers as sergeant M. P. A promotion that has been rapid when one considers the months he spent in the personnel office assisting in "mustering in" the thousands of troops passing through the great Ohio cantonment.

President C. W. Chamberlain is in receipt of a telegram from Dr. Heinrichs now in Chicago, which is an exact copy of the cable received by him from the government, announcing that his son, Walter Heinrichs, wounded in zero combat and cared for in a German prison camp hospital since September, has been released and is on his way home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kessell, who spent the winter at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Lovelace, have returned to their home in Steubenville.

Sir Isaac Newton.
Sir Isaac Newton, English natural philosopher, was born at Woolsthorpe, Lincolnshire, in 1642. In 1665 he invented the binomial theorem, the method of tangents, and the fluxional calculus. The story seems to be authentic that the fall of an apple in the garden of Woolsthorpe late in 1665 started the train of thought which led to the discovery of universal gravitation. He certainly then deduced the rule of inverse squares. His works on natural science are numerous and have formed the basis of a great deal of recent inquiry. He showed the attractive principle in the solar system, and demonstrated the subjection to it of comets. In his optical researches he resolved white light into its component parts as colors.

Home Nursing.
In the sick room don't have the patient lie with his face to the window; he is sure to suffer from the light if you do.
From Red Cross hospital gardens in France over 5,000 convalescent soldiers have harvested 22 tons of green vegetables and a large crop of potatoes.

Opposition to Vaccination.
The first compulsory vaccination act was passed in England about sixty-four years ago. Ten years later vaccination became obligatory in Scotland and Ireland, and this means of protection against smallpox has since become general in nearly all civilized countries. There was, of course, much opposition to the new law in many quarters, and anti-vaccination societies were formed. These exist even today in many parts of the world. Thirty-three years ago an anti-vaccination riot occurred in Montreal. A mob attacked the city hall and threatened to burn the newspaper offices, but the police succeeded in quelling the disturbance. Similar outbreaks, especially among eastern peoples, have occurred from time to time.

Author of Immortal Song.
"Home, Sweet Home" was written in 1823 by John Howard Payne. In his very few of the sixty years of his life Payne was sufficiently long at any one place to call it his home. He died in Tunis, Africa, April 1, 1852, and it was thirty-one years afterwards before his body was brought to his native country, the place he no doubt had in mind when he penned these appealing words.

Jerusalem.
The earliest historical notice of this fortified city appears in the Amarna Letters of the date B. C. 1400.

MESSAGE FOR WORLD RELIEF

Hoover Appeals to "World Conscience" For Food Sharing.

PROGRAM OF RECONSTRUCTION

Calls For Continued Food Saving to Prevent Anarchy and Starvation Among Our Neighbors Overseas.

"Again in full confidence, I call upon the American people to set aside Sunday, Dec. 1, and the week following, for the consideration of America's opportunity for renewed service and sacrifice."

"Last summer, when the military situation was acute, we assured the Inter-Allied Food Conference in London, that whatever the war food program of the allies required, we were prepared to meet; that the conference need not consider whether or not we had the supplies—we were prepared to find them; we pledged ourselves, by the voluntary economy of our people, to have the reserves in food to supply all necessities. The ending of the war does not release us from the pledge. The same populations must be fed, and until another season has passed they can not feed themselves."

Change in Situation.
"The change in the foreign situation necessarily alters the details of our food program, because the freeing of the seas from the submarine menace, renders accessible the wheat supplies of India, Australia and the Argentine. The total food demand upon the United States is not diminished, however. On the contrary, it is increased. In addition to the supplying of those to whom we are already pledged, we now have the splendid opportunity and obligation of meeting the needs of those millions of people in the hitherto occupied territories who are facing actual starvation. The people of Belgium, Northern France, Serbia, Roumania, Montenegro, Poland, Russia and Armenia rely upon America for immediate aid. We must also participate in the preservation of the newly-liberated nations in Austria; nor can we ignore the effect on the future world developments of a famine condition among those other people whom we have recently released from our enemies. All these considerations mean that upwards of 200 million people, in addition to those we are already pledged to serve, are now looking to us in their misery and famine. Our appeal today is therefore larger than the former appeal to the 'war conscience' of our people. The new appeal is to the 'world conscience,' which must be the guiding inspiration of our future program."

Recalls Russian Situation.
"The president of the United States has asked me to take charge for this government of this work; to perfect and enlarge the arrangements for foodstuffs to the populations of Belgium and France now being released, and to organize and determine the need of provisions to the liberated peoples of southern Europe to prevent such debacle as has taken place in Russia."

"The determining factor for the success of such an enlarged appeal will be the vivid consciousness in every individual in each community of obligation and opportunity. It is that common recognition of obligation, that we now wish to create. Such an intelligent 'world conscience' in the American people must be the main dependence of the stricken countries of the world until normal conditions are once more restored."

We Must Prevent Anarchy.
"America by her participation in the war has accomplished her objectives of self-defense and of vindicating the efficiency of a government in which the people, and the people only, are sovereign. She has established the foundations of government by the people throughout the enemy countries, and this is the real bulwark of world peace. We have yet to build on these foundations. No government nor nation can stand if its people are starving. We must do our part if the world be not consumed in a flame of anarchy."

"The American people, in this most critical period of their history, have the opportunity to demonstrate not only their ability to assist in establishing peace on earth, but also their consecration, by self-denial, to the cause of suffering humanity."

"HERBERT HOOVER."

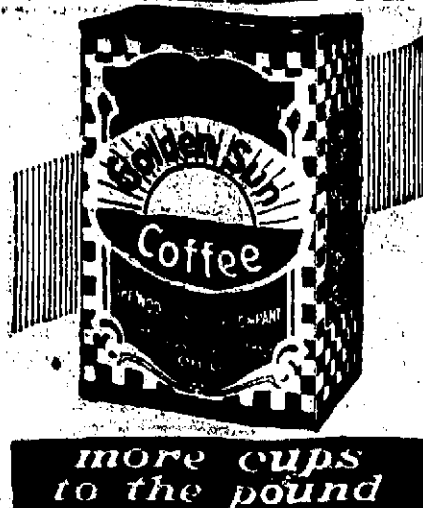

The war has been brought to an end in no small measure by starvation itself, and it can not be our business to maintain starvation after peace.

Until next harvest the American table must be set according to the food resources of the world and the needs of Europe.

There is one food policy that can not change, and that is the vital necessity of simple living.

The spectator of famine abroad now haunts the abundance of our table at home.

A man must be mighty stiff-necked when he refuses to bow to the inevitable.

For Personal Wear and Christmas Gift Giving

AND again the figures prove conclusively that people are buying and giving useful things for Christmas this season.

The big dress goods and silk section is surely getting its share of the Christmas trade.

And another reason for it is the vast stocks, high grade qualities and the reasonable prices.

Give useful things this season for Christmas—and dress goods and silks are the real useful things at these prices—just run over the prices.
